

Directed to procure passage of law against manufacture of turpentine by adulteration, &c.

Resolved by the House of Representatives of North Carolina, the Senate concurring: That our representatives in Congress be requested and our senators be instructed to procure the passage of a law by Congress forbidding the manufacture of turpentine by any process of adulteration, or putting the same upon market unless the barrel or package containing it have the mark of "adulterated spirits of turpentine," or some other mark or brand plainly stamped thereon whereby it can be distinguished from pure spirits, with sufficient penalties to enforce the same.

Resolved 2. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each of our senators and representatives in Congress.

Ratified the 11th day of March, A. D. 1889.

A resolution concerning the governor's mansion.

Governor directed to use available assets to complete building.

Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring: That the governor and his council be and they are hereby authorized to use all the available assets on hand toward the completion of the governor's mansion as far as the same will go.

Ratified the 11th day of March, A. D. 1889.

[A resolution in reference to keeping open the State library at night.]

State librarian to keep library open at night.

Proviso.

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring: That the State librarian is hereby directed and authorized to keep the State library open from seven o'clock until nine each afternoon: Provided, that the necessary expense of keeping said library open be voluntarily paid by the board of trade of the city of Raleigh.

Ratified the 11th day of March, A. D. 1889.

Resolution in favor of M. N. Monroe, clerk to the committee on propositions and grievances.

Allowed $40 for clerical services.

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring: That M. N. Monroe, clerk to the committee on propositions and grievances, be and is hereby allowed the sum of forty dollars in full of his services as such clerk, and this to include the service rendered on the Senate as well as the House "omnibus" liquor bill.

Ratified the 11th day of March, A. D. 1889.